Reviewed Fairy Gardening 101: How to Design, Plant, Grow, and Create Over 25 Miniature Gardens ... by Fiona McDonald

I love her! She is so creative and talented - ...

July 30, 2014

It's no secret that I'm a fan of Fiona McDonald's work. I love her! She is so creative and talented - seriously, how does she come up with all these great things? So when I discovered she was writing a 'how to' book on something that I've been doing since I was a child, I was first in line to buy it!

It did NOT disappoint! 193 pages of beautiful photography (as usual!) kept me distracted for hours. Then I got down to work making my own gardens following her simple, easy-to-understand instructions. Three fairy gardens done! Easy! Even better was the pattern for a fairy doll to make myself. How many other books tell you how to make the garden AND the fairy to go in it? I have since ordered three more copies to be sent to family members around the world and I KNOW that they will love it as much as I did. How could they not? I'm now off to try my hand at a hanging fairy garden. Can't wait!

Another fantastic work of art by Fiona McDonald, it's definitely worth getting a copy of this book!

Reviewed The Popular History of Graffiti: From the Ancient World to the Present ... by Fiona McDonald

Stunning images, clever words - what more could I want?

June 20, 2014

I don't like graffiti, I'll say that now. Or rather I didn't until I found 'A Popular History of Graffiti' by Fiona McDonald. This book covers graffiti from all areas of history and Fiona's use of language made me interested enough to keep reading. Did you know that in Ancient times it was OKAY and almost expected to Graffiti on a regular basis? Even rude stuff! She has also sourced fantastic images of graffiti from around the world, including some that I recognised from my home town in the Blue Mountains in Australia.

I've been a fan of Fiona's for years, especially her graphic novel 'Ghost Doll and Jasper' as well as her series of knitting books. Is there anything this woman can't do???
