Reviewed Legends of Adventure Board Game ...

Great Game that you will want to play over and over!

September 23, 2014

Very unique board game that incorporates cards and pictorial dice. For the most part the board is used as a score keeper/damage meter and actually play is rolling dice and playing cards. At the beginning you are dealt 5 hero cards and get to pick 3 to be in your hero pool. You start the game with only one of the 3. The "luck" of the draw of what hero cards you get makes this game and your strategy different every time you play right from the start. Challenging game play...not too hard, not too easy, just right to keep it fun.

Totally recommend this game!

Love the lego movie

July 29, 2014

Love this. The kids like it, and parents as well. It's something we can all watch together without the nasty content, crude and snotty remarks going on in other movies..good, clean fun!

Doesn't seem to work right

May 20, 2014

I would not recommend buying this because it doesn't seem to work right. Maybe it's just us but the crayons don't seem to melt thoroughly in the tray then when you tip it to pour into the crayon mold, it doesn't all pour out. It doesn't seem like the heating unit is hot enough. I would not get this again and I would advise others of our problems. The kids really like it though, I don't know if it is because of the excitement of Christmas, or they actually like it..

well worth the money!!

May 20, 2014

This is one of the best shows around. We got it for our 14 year old daughter's birthday and she is so in love with all the characters, as are we. In these times, you need something that is wholesome and won't pollute young and "old" minds alike. It is so relaxing and fun to see what Opie will do next!!! It's just a shame there aren't more like this show. Would totally recommend this to anyone who doesn't have the time for today's attitude toward tv, movies and the like. It shows you what people should be like and once were.

buy for a trip back to your childhood!

January 10, 2014

Totally appropriate for kids and adults who don't want today's pollution with television entertainment. We only get our children the old cartoons that we used to watch and are acceptable. Caveman is nothing but fun! He pulls things out of his fur!! Buy this and enjoy the simplicity!

We were delighted

January 10, 2014

Got this for our daughter. She loved the size and the delicate presentation. It will take some time to learn to use it correctly though. She was going to use the rectangular soapstone on the left, and it broke in two. Was not happy with that. I am not sure if there could be anything to prevent that though. It's soapstone..other than that, she is happy.

a good paper for this set.

January 10, 2014

We ordered this for Christmas. It came quickly and in perfect condition. The paper is very light and almost see through. I don't know much at all about this, but my daughter is very happy with this and she has used it. It produces a water color effect when used with Chinese painting set. I would advise getting this if this is what you are into.

Fun but pricey

July 29, 2014

Like the mixture aspect of this, but you sure do run out of supplies for it fast. Way faster than the kids are done making markers. For my kids, it;s the fun of seeing the color go up the filter, then snapping the pieces together. They don't use markers much..if your kids really want it, and you use markers, then give it a try, but it's expensive. Not something you could get friends over and play with..

May 20, 2014

This is a great book for young and old alike. The ideas are so original and fun. Our daughter loves to look through this book, then plan and make her gardens. They are so cute to see come to real life. It is fun finding all the small things you can use for these and tuming other things into "garden" things. A really nice book.

very cool stuff

May 20, 2014

My daughter likes this whipple creme because it looks like real frosting, but you can keep it forever. She uses it with the kits and clay things she has made on her own, so you could use it on whatever you like, but just remember you can't reuse it. That is the downfall in my opinion.

Daughter loves it

May 20, 2014

Daughter requested this for her 14th birthday. I thought it would be too easy for her because she is way above this craft level. She just loves it and I think it is because you can keep it forever looking like a fresh treat. This is a really interesting idea, but in my opinion, the "creme" goes way too fast. She stretched the whole thing out and made it last a half hour, but truthfully, you could do it in 15 mins or so and then you are all done. It is costly in the way that you can't reuse it also. I am glad my daughter is happy though.

Get this for a quick activity!

January 10, 2014

In my opinion, this was too easy. We got it for our daughter, who is the type who can read origami directions and make beautiful creations, just that easy. So this was a little too easy for her although she absolutely loves it!! It also was put together too quickly for my taste, but again, she loves it. If you know you or your child needs a challenge, go for something more complicated. I would advise this for a beginner, middle type model maker.

buy this for fun and function!

January 10, 2014

We got this for our 13 yr. old. It came in a vacuum packed bag and we were hesitant that it would not expand to correct size, but it did and we all love it. It looks real, and she loves sleeping on it. There is cotton in the stuffing and no chemical or other smell is present. She can't get over how real it looks. I would say get this for fun decoration or function!

Be careful

January 10, 2014

Ordered this for our 11 yr old. Got it in perfect condition but the fabric it's made from is so thin. The worst thing is the smell. It was bought to be used as a pillow, but you cannot put this near your face or nose!! Someone who has allergies would probably have to return this. It smells very strongly of epoxy! Glue, chemicals, something very artificial. I washed it and put fab. soft in, and still bad. Waiting for a windy spring day to hopefully air it out. So if you want something decorative, to just throw on your chair, it looks very nice, realistic..haha..but actual usefulness, I would not advise breathing that smell! When I washed it I used extra light cycle and put it in a mesh bag. Still, when we took it out, some of the styrofoam beads were falling out where the stitching came apart. Sewed that up by hand and it's ok now, but one washing...!!! I guess it is all in your intentions for this product.

Best magazine ever

October 10, 2012

My children 10 and 12 yrs. love this magazine. It is young enough for the age group, but not too young so they lose interest.

The content is very well put. The problem/solutions are true to life. My little girl said "I love Club magazine, it's the best ever. It teaches me about God, and explains problems." That encouraged me to find old issues of the mag. for sale. I have renewed our subscription as well.
