A winter dream.....

February 04, 2014

...for a gardener this was a wonderful gift in the middle of a cold midwest winter. This will give the reader a way to expand their imagination and realize that gardens do not need to be huge to have impact.

Huh???

January 01, 2014

Well Mr Patterson, you sure know how to keep your readers on edge!! Very few writers have the where-with-all to end a book the way you did. As and avid Alex Cross fan I would read the next one anyway. I hope you didn't turn away fans, these books are so much fun to read.

Thought provoking

February 04, 2014

This book was so interesting that I read it twice. The first time I read it as another quick read for entertainment. After that I waited and thought about it for a few days and then went back and read it with a different perspective. There were many things that had my head nodding in agreement and at the same time had my heart sad because this could happen. It was like the time I first read about Big Brother watching.

A reader will either be fascinated by this book or toss it aside as pure fiction, yet from fiction comes fact.

Got One

December 23, 2011

Good solid product, not flash just good quality.

I was looking for a great ebook to read NOT play games and I got one. The only thing that took some time to get used to was the page up and down buttons on both sides of the Kindle. I do miss page numbers tho. Now if only I had gotten some of the 1000 page books I have on this my arms wouldn't get so tired!

I also got a lighted case which makes reading at night even easier.
